

Eicher Polaris launches personal utility vehicle Multix

Eicher Polaris, a joint venture between Eicher Motors and US-based Polaris Industries, launched personal utility vehicle "Multix". Designed specially for independent businessmen, Multix is available in two variants and has a starting price of Rs 2.32 lakh (ex-showroom Jaipur), the company said in a statement. Multix has a cabin space for five people along with luggage and is equipped with a power-take-off point, which can generate power of upto 3 kw that can be used for lighting a house or business place, powering professional equipment such as drilling machines, DJ systems, water pumps and more.