

Royal Enfield to double capacity

Royal Enfield, the two-wheeler arm of Eicher Motors, plans to set up its third plant in Tamil Nadu to double its motorcycle production capacity to around 9 lakh units per annum by 2018. The firm is already in the process of raising production capacity at its two plants in the outskirts of Chennai to 4.5 lakh units per annum.