5.1 Internal Complaints Committee

An Internal Complaints Committee ('ICC' or 'Internal Committee') is established for every factory/establishment of Royal Enfield, (A Unit of Eicher Motors Limited) and shall address the issue of sexual harassment cases at different locations. The members of the committee for each location have been provided in annexure I.

The Presiding Officer and every Member of the Internal Committee shall hold office for such period, not exceeding three years, from the date of their nomination.

6.0 Process for dealing with incidents of sexual harassment

- Any aggrieved person (“Complainant”) may make, in writing, a complaint of sexual harassment at workplace to the Internal Committee within a period of three months from the date of incident and in case of a series of incidents, within a period of three months from the date of last incident against the respondent (A “respondent” means a person against whom the Complainant has made the complaint)
- Provided that where such complaint cannot be made in writing, the Presiding Officer or any Member of the Internal Committee, or the Chairperson as the case may be, shall render all reasonable assistance to the Complainant for making the complaint in writing. Provided that the Internal Committee, for the reasons recorded in writing, extend the time limit not exceeding three months, if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the Complainant from filing a complaint within the said period.
- Where the Complainant is unable to make a complaint on account of her/his physical or mental incapacity or death or otherwise, her/his legal heir or such other person as may be prescribed may make a complaint.
- The Internal Committee, before initiating an inquiry, and at the request of the Complainant take steps to settle the matter between her/his and the respondent
- Through conciliation (conciliation process has been mentioned later in this document), provided that no monetary settlement shall be the basis of conciliation.
- On receipt of such a complaint, the panel will immediately arrange to fully investigate all relevant details of the matter. It will do so with all possible care, sensitivity and discretion in protecting the sensibilities of the affected person. The respondent, who have allegedly committed the offence, would be given all reasonable opportunity to be heard by the panel. Internal Committee has to ensure that any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, recommendations of the Internal Committee and the action taken shall not be published, communicated or made known to the public, press and media in any manner.
- At the first meeting, the committee members shall hear the Complainant and record her/his allegations. The Complainant can also submit any corroborative material with a documentary proof, if any, oral or written materials etc., to substantiate his/her complaint. If Complainant does not wish to depose personally due to embarrassment of narration of event, a lady officer for lady employees involved and a male officer for male employees, involved shall meet & record the statement.
- Thereafter, the person against who the complaint is made may be called for a deposition before the Committee and an opportunity will be given to her/him to give explanation. The Committee will provide every reasonable opportunity to the Complainant and to the accused for putting forward and defending their respective case.
- The Committee shall hand over the statement of allegation (Charge sheet) to the accused in writing and give the aforesaid employee an opportunity to submit a written explanation if he/she so desires within a span of three days.

- The Management shall also provide all necessary assistance for the purpose of ensuring full, effective and speedy inquiry by the Internal Committee.
- Both parties, during the inquiry will be provided with the opportunity of being heard and a copy of the findings shall be made available to both the parties, enabling them to make representation against the findings of the Committee.
- For the purpose of making the inquiry, the Internal Committee shall have the powers to:
 - Summon and enforce attendance of any person and examine him on oath;
 - Require discovery and production of documents;
 - Any other matter which may be prescribed
- The contents of the complaint, the identity, address of the employee, respondent and witnesses, any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings of the Internal Committee and the action taken by Royal Enfield, (A Unit of Eicher Motors Limited) shall not be published, communicated or made known to the public, press and media in any manner. Provided that the information may be disseminated regarding the justice secured to any victim of sexual harassment under this Act without disclosing the name, address, identity or any other particulars calculated to lead to the identification of the Complainant and witnesses.

6.1 Inquiry into Complaint (Action during pendency of inquiry)

- During the pendency of an inquiry, on a written request made by the aggrieved person, the Internal Committee may recommend for the following:
 - a) Transfer the aggrieved employee or the respondent to any other workplace
 - b) Grant leave to the aggrieved employee upto a period of three months. The leave granted to the aggrieved employee shall be in addition to the leave she would be otherwise entitled.
 - c) Grant such other relief to the aggrieved person.

6.2 Inquiry Report

- On the completion of an inquiry, the Internal Committee shall provide a report of its findings to the employer within a period of ten days from the date of completion of the inquiry and such report be made available to the concerned parties.
- In the event of the Internal Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the respondent has not been proved, no action is required to be taken in the matter.
- In the event of Internal Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the respondent has been proved, the following recommendation will be made:

- a) To take action for sexual harassment as misconduct in accordance with the provisions of the service rules applicable to the respondent.
 - b) To deduct notwithstanding anything in the service rules applicable to the respondent, from the salary or wages of the respondent such sum as it may be considered appropriate to be paid to the Complainant or to its legal heirs, as it may determine.
 - c) In the event of the respondent's absence or cessation of employment, where the salary deduction is not possible, the respondent will be liable to pay such sum to the aggrieved person directly.
 - d) After final recommendation, within sixty days the case has to be settled.
- Where the Company is legally advised that any such incident constitutes a criminal offence, the Company will inform the relevant authority, provide full details and request appropriate action. If the aggrieved person directly takes any action, against the offending employee, either civil or criminal, the panel on becoming aware of such action by the aggrieved person, shall be entitled to, suo moto, start the internal enquiry / investigation and recommend appropriate action.
 - The Company will ensure that the career interests of the Complainant are not adversely affected by virtue of the individual having drawn attention to such an offence.

6.3 Process of Conciliation:

- The Internal Committee may, before initiating an inquiry, at the request of the aggrieved person, take steps to settle the matter between her and the respondent through conciliation. Provided that no monetary settlement shall be made as a basis of conciliation.
- Where a settlement has been arrived, the Internal Committee shall record the settlement so arrived and forward the same to the employer to take action as specified in the recommendation.
- The Internal Committee shall provide the copies of the settlement to the Complainant and the respondent.
- Where the settlement is arrived, no further inquiry shall be conducted by the Internal Committee.
- Where the aggrieved person informs the Internal Committee that any term or condition of the settlement arrived at has not been complied with by the respondent, the Internal Committee shall proceed to make an inquiry into the complaint or as the case may be, forward the complaint to the police

6.4 Punishment for false or malicious complaint and false evidence.

- In case the Internal Committee arrives at a conclusion that the allegation against the respondent is malicious or the aggrieved person or any other person making the complaint has made the complaint knowing it to be false or the aggrieved person or any other person making complaint has produced any forged or misleading document, appropriate action will be taken against the employee or the person who has made the complaint including disciplinary action.
- In case of mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof need not attract action against the Complainant under this section.
- If the Committee feels that the complaint/notification does not fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment/ the complaint/notification on the face of it is not maintainable, the Committee may close the same after recording the reasons thereof.

6.5 Other aspects of Disciplinary Action

Where any such conduct amounts to a specific offence under the Indian Penal Code or under any other law, the company shall cause to initiate/ assist the aggrieved person to take appropriate action in accordance with law by making complaint with the appropriate authority.

6.6 Third Party Harassment

If any incident of sexual harassment occurs as a result of an act or omission by outsider or third party employed by the company in any manner, the company shall take all steps necessary and reasonable to assist the affected person in terms of support and preventive action in accordance with this policy
